SEE AND ISCHGL

THE SILVRETTA VALLEY

AUSTRIA

Skiing

We travel in the comfort of our coach from our hotel in See after breakfast. The independent skiers may be dropped off at Kappl, Ischgl or Galtür. Beginners will be taken to the ski school at Ischgl well in time for the start of the morning lesson.

At the end of the day our coach takes us straight back to our hotel. For those wishing to ski longer in Ischgl there are taxi's and ski buses available to return you to See.

Simonie's après ski bar in See, just over the road from the Hotel Mallaun, offers a great selection of après ski refreshments in lively surroundings.

On Thursday we are having a day trip in our own coach to skiing at Serfaus. For passengers not wishing to go to Serfaus you can ski at See or use the ski service buses which will take you up the valley to either, Kappl, Ischgl or Galtür.

Beginners

Ski School Ischgl is famous for the quality of its tuition. Ischgl is popular with English skiers and most instructors speak good English. There are wide gentle pistes and easy drag lifts for your first days on skis. As you improve there is more choice of pistes of varying difficulties for you to try.

Intermediates

The choice of blue and red runs is limitless within the scope of the average holiday. As our coach will be going to different resorts each day there is every opportunity to improve and put "miles under your skis".

Advanced

The vast scale of the Silvretta system means that most advanced skiers will find plenty to do and enjoy.

All the pistes are well prepared and are well marked.

Lift passes

Best to buy in resort. Adult's passes are approx £35.00 - £43.00 per day, depending at which resort you ski.

Ski hire

Skis, poles and boots hired from CT Ski £32, skis only are £24.50, Boots only £11.50, Junior skis, poles and boots £20 (130cm and under), and snowboard and boots are £37. The prices above include carver and are our top end skis.

NB - These prices are for customers on this trip only

Ski technician

Trevor is our ski technician on the holiday to do any adjustments to ski bindings, swap boots, skis and snowboards.

Hosts – Trevor and Arron
